

International Trade Press Stand ProSweets Cologne

Dear Sir or Madam,

Take the opportunity to establish new contacts with potential readers from your branch. By displaying print media at Koelnmesse's "International Trade Press Stand", you can present your publications extensively and target them at visitors. Thus interested exhibitors and the trade will be able to obtain information about the international press and become acquainted with your trade magazine.

If you would like to take up Koelnmesse's offer, which is provided free of charge, please send us 100 copies of your trade magazine by 25th January 2010.

Please note: we cannot bear responsibility for shipping and transport costs. Please observe the shipping regulations as follows: customs and tax paid to the exhibition stand. Transport and clearance costs from the airport or rail goods terminal to the exhibition stand cannot be borne by us either. Please mark your shipment with corresponding precision to the following address:
